

Consumer Notice Use of Personal Information

We collect personal information from you for reasons that are discussed in our privacy statement. We may be required to collect certain personal information by law or by organizations that give us money to operate our programs.

The information that we collect allows us to better understand the needs of homeless individuals and families in our community, and to improve our services. We only collect information that we consider to be necessary and appropriate.

We collect personal information from you to:

- Better understand your needs
- Improve our services
- Comply with federal, state & local laws
- Provide reports to our funders

We only ask for information that we truly need – nothing more. You may request a copy of our full Privacy Notice at any time.
